Leadership Newberg Accepting Applications for Fall Program

Register yourself or someone in your company for the Leadership Newberg program sponsored by A-dec and the Chehalem Valley Chamber of Commerce. In dynamic monthly sessions, September through May, participants learn about issues of vital concern to the city and learn how they can work effectively to shape the future of their community, organization, and/or business.

Program goals:

- Identify and motivate potential leaders
- Acquaint potential leaders with community needs and challenges
- Introduce participants to notable leaders within their community
- Challenge program participants to become involved in their community

Participants will gain a broader understanding of their community and how it functions as they are introduced to influential community leaders. They will learn leadership skills while acquiring valuable information and access to resources which will aid them in their work. By building relationships with business and community leaders that would otherwise take years to develop, they will create a positive presence and identify themselves and their business or organization as partners in the community.

We ask you to consider supporting this program by participating or encouraging a person in your organization to join our class this fall! Ongoing sessions are scheduled the third Tuesday of each month beginning Tuesday, September 20, 2016. Registration forms are available online or at the Chamber office and are due on August 10th. Cost is $425 (Chamber members), $600 (non-Chamber members) and includes all meals & transportation.

Go to <http://www.chehalemvalley.org/member-center/leadership-newberg> to register or call Sheryl Kelsh at 503-538-2014 for more information.

Wrapping up their season will be the ever popular Hit Machine, performing August 30. Bring your lawn chairs, enjoy great food & libations, visit friends and let the kiddos play.

Another old time favorite is our Old Fashioned Festival, which takes place July 28 – July 31. Always a fun time with carnival rides, vendors, fair food & of course there are plenty of Elephant Ears! ## Willamette Valley Lavender Festival

This July, Newberg will be filled with the scent of lavender. Thanks to the Willamette Valley Lavender Festival, lavender growers from all over Oregon are coming together to celebrate the sweet-smelling plant and all its benefits on the weekend of July 9-10.

Hosted at the Chehalem Cultural Center in Newberg, families and community members will enjoy free admission to the festival as they wander through several vendor and sponsor booths. Local businesses will offer lavender-themed products ranging from soaps to accessories for your perusal, and visitors can also enjoy the Plein Air Art Show. Local artists will showcase their talents in a number of mediums for juried art booths.

Participation is welcomed too! Visitors will also be able to try their hand at lavender-infused craft projects while enjoying food and drink from local lavender farms. Be sure to try the lavender beer or wine as you enjoy the live music, which will be provided by an exciting lineup of artists. You can even set up a visit to a local lavender farm to see their process up close and personal.

The Willamette Valley Lavender festival is generously sponsored by Art Elements and Coldwell Banker. Art Elements has several galleries showing local artists in and around the Willamette Valley and Coldwell Banker has been serving the local community for the past thirty years. Because of these sponsors and the hard work of volunteers, proceeds for the festival will benefit several charitable organizations.

Help defeat IP28, the $6 Billion tax on Oregon sales

Oregonians should be very concerned about Initiative Petition 28 (IP28) – the proposed $6 Billion tax increase that will be on the November ballot. IP28 would create huge new taxes on many products sold in Oregon, as well as on services provided by Oregon employers, even if those services are sold around the world.

Here's the problem. Despite misleading claims by its sponsors, much of the $6 Billion cost of IP28 would be passed on to Oregon consumers in the form of higher prices for nearly everything they buy – with no exemptions for food, medicine, clothing, utilities, insurance and even medical care.

IP28 proposes a new 2.5% tax on the total Oregon sales – not profits – of businesses organized as C-Corps that generate $25 million or more in sales. In fact, businesses would be required to pay the new tax whether they make a profit or not.

It's the worst kind of tax on sales because it can be added at each step in the production process – a “tax on a tax” – cascading into much higher prices for items Oregonians buy every day. By the time an Oregon product goes from a producer to a distributor and then to a retailer in the state, it may be taxed multiple times before finally reaching the consumer, making Oregon products more expensive and Oregon companies less competitive.

The proponents of this massive tax increase can't even guarantee where the $6 Billion will be spent. The only guarantee in IP28 is higher costs for Oregon products and services, as well as damaging economic impacts that could threaten the recent economic improvements that we have worked so hard to achieve.

Here's where you come in. Defeat The Tax On Oregon Sales is the coalition of hundreds of Oregon consumers, taxpayers, small and medium-sized businesses, associations and organizations that have come together to oppose this tax proposal.

More than 30 chambers across the state are already working with the Coalition.

If you have not already done so, please join the coalition to defeat IP28 and help stop this costly, damaging and unprecedented $6 Billion tax increase.

Visit the website, DefeatTheTaxOnOregonSales.com, and add the name of your business to the Coalition, donate to the campaign, sign up for email communication and keep in touch with coalition news and updates. Also, like the coalition on Facebook and follow them on Twitter to find shareable items to spread the word on social media about why IP28 is the wrong choice for Oregon.

Newberg Fire/EMS Partners with Tualatin Valley Fire & Rescue to Strengthen Service

The city of Newberg and Tualatin Valley Fire & Rescue began a two-year agreement on July 1 that strengthens emergency response in the city of Newberg and surrounding area within the Newberg Rural Fire Protection District.

Newberg approached TVF&R for contracted services due to current and future funding limitations that made it difficult to provide adequate fire department staffing, maintain equipment and comply with nationally recommended standards, particularly with increases in service demands.

The city of Newberg and TVF&R went through a discovery process to better understand whether a partnership would prove a good fit for both organizations. On March 7, the Newberg City Council decided to take the next step of approving a functional consolidation contract. As part of the two-year agreement, TVF&R will extend service to Newberg Rural Fire Protection District through an existing contract with the city of Newberg.

Despite a 42 percent increase in service demands in the past decade, there have not been any firefighters or staff added to the Newberg Fire Department since 2006. As part of the contract, TVF&R will provide additional firefighters to improve coverage and response. The city will also receive an updated ladder truck and two ambulances.

TVF&R will also provide vehicle maintenance, fulfill the terms of the ambulance service agreement and ensure Newberg firefighters receive continued critical skills training in advanced life support, structural fire suppression, wildland firefighting and public education.

TVF&R and Newberg's fire and emergency medical services staff are committed to working together to preserve the fire department's sense of history and community engagement.

The contract is not a long-term solution. An intergovernmental council will be created comprised of Newberg city councilors, the Newberg city manager, TVF&R's citizen-elected board members and TVF&R's fire chief. They will monitor the progress of the partnership and provide recommendations about joining forces permanently that would be decided by area residents.

Tualatin Valley Fire & Rescue became a regional fire district because of similar partnerships. TVF&R took shape between 1972 and 2004, as a number of small fire departments consolidated to share limited resources and save money. It's because of these consolidation and annexation efforts that TVF&R has one of the lowest tax rates in the region. TVF&R maintains a small-town heart with the benefits of a large cooperative.

TVF&R achieves cost savings through economies of scale such as buying trucks and equipment in bulk, reducing administrative overhead, garnering better borrowing rates as well as leveraging a system of response to strategically locate stations, resources and personnel. Enhanced service for Newberg will be achieved at roughly the same cost the city currently budgets for fire and emergency medical response during the contract.

For more information about the partnership, contact TVF&R Division Chief Brian Sherrard at 503-649-8577.

Consider volunteering at the Hoover-Minthorn House Museum this summer!

The Museum is open Wednesday through Sunday from 1 to 4 p.m.

We are looking for volunteers to give tours during the regularly scheduled open times. The volunteer commitment is flexible, but we encourage a minimum once a month obligation.

Tours at the Hoover-Minthorn House Museum, boyhood home of Herbert Hoover, give visitors information about Newberg. The house is the oldest still standing in Newberg and embodies Newberg's early Quaker history. Built in 1881 by Jesse Edwards, the house became the home of Dr. Henry John Minthorn and his family in 1885. Dr. Minthorn was the superintendent of Newberg's Friends Pacific Academy. Hoover, who had been orphaned in 1884 at the age of nine, came to Newberg from Iowa to live with the Minthorns.

Volunteers provide information to visitors about Herbert Hoover's remarkable life. Through massive food relief programs in World War I, during 1921-1923, and after World War II, Hoover saved more lives than anyone else in history. Dubbed the Great Humanitarian, Hoover was nominated for the Nobel Peace prize five times. He contributed to the organization and efficiency of the government through such programs as the Division of Simplified Practice. He gave rise to the name Hooverilles, but also Hooverizing – the minimization of waste.

A Message From Chehalem Youth and Family Services

To our Community Partners, Supporters, and Donors

Chehalem Youth and Family Services (CYFS) Behavior Rehabilitative Services (BRS) program has been given a 30 day Intent To Revoke notice of our license by DHS. Since recently completing a comprehensive review process this spring without further required actions, we were all stunned by the recent article on DHS's Intent to Revoke CYFS's residential services license. This is a highly politicized issue stemming from DHS's failure to prevent major abuses in the Give Us This Day program and their failure to meet any of their Own standards required by the Federal government. Our state is at risk of losing billions of dollars in Federal funds because of DHS problems, and now they are over compensating with rampant frivolous investigations and findings that make no common sense just to prove they are doing something.

CYFS and other providers are fighting back. CYFS has become a lightning rod in the situation because of our advocacy for quality care, justice, and common sense. Now OAAPI, the investigative arm of the state, is under investigation itself and it is about time. Already 17 youth programs have closed in the last 19 months across the state. As a result, our state's youth are routinely sleeping in DHS offices and in hotel rooms with caseworkers which is appalling. Of course none of this meets DHS's own licensing standards.

CYFS has always welcomed the partnership we have with DHS and this notification of Intent to Revoke License is being embraced by CYFS as another step toward building the increasingly high level of caring and therapeutic services these children, who have struggled with other services, need. With numerous changes that Behavioral Residential Services has gone through in our state over the past few years, it is even more pivotal to build a healthy and strong partnership with DHS and those we partner with each day. We look forward to the continued growth that CYFS along with DHS will be going through to better the welfare of those whom we serve.

CYFS is appealing the Intent to Revoke License. We believe this recent action will be reversed as DHS is held accountable for their actions. We look forward to continuing to provide quality care to our states youth in our BRS program with the support of our community. For more information, please contact Deborah Cathers-Seymour, Executive Director, at (503) 901-3665.

Spotlight on Business

Edward Jones Mike Boock, Financial Advisor

Hours: 8-5pm, M-F or special appointment

Phone: 503.538.8781, Fax: 855.429.0402

Mike.boock@edwardjones.com

Mike Boock

Edward Jones started in 1922 and has stayed true to its business plan of having one Financial Advisor and office assistant in each small branch that they open. The company is private and independent which allows us to do what is truly in the best interest for our clients, not the shareholders. This is one of the main reasons why I chose Edward Jones over the many publicly traded firms which have to answer to their shareholders and have proprietary mutual funds or stocks that they are forced to use.

I believe in a thoughtful, straightforward investment philosophy - long-term investing with an emphasis on quality and diversification. All three of these elements work together. Our philosophy is one of the ways we can help you make sense of investing. I want my clients to know what they own and why they own them.

It is tough to describe our business in a short paragraph but I help people with all of their financial matters. I help to organize, consolidate, grow, preserve and distribute their wealth/assets. I work with people that simply want to open up a Roth IRA account to 401K plans for businesses to complex financial matters that require estate planning attorneys & CPA's.

It is my goal that each and every client has a well-documented financial plan that is built specifically for their goals and needs.

I believe that Edward Jones stands out due to it being a privately-held partnership which allows me to do what is best for the client. We do not have any proprietary mutual funds or stocks that we are forced to use and we do not have to answer to shareholders.

We also are different in that we see the value in having one financial advisor per branch which allows us to live and work in the communities we serve.

By far, my favorite reaction is when a client leaves my office with a smile and a financial plan that they understand. It really is a neat feeling to go through their retirement plan together, face to face, and to see their reaction when you can tell them that they will be just fine in retirement.

For many people, retirement planning may seem a bit drab for a career but it absolutely fulfills me on a daily basis. It is important for everybody to have good mental, physical, spiritual & financial health. I have the opportunity to help with their financial health and I take that very seriously and we have a fun time doing it.
