New Class of Leadership Newberg Kicks Off

Leadership Newberg's newest cohort kicked off with 15 participants. Last month they enjoyed a team building session at Camp Tilikum to help them bond as a group while pushing their comfort zone through activities like walking across a log suspended 35 feet above the ground while in a harness and climbing a 65 foot tree and zip lining across the water. Their second session gave the opportunity to learn about city and county government with visits to the Fire Department, Police Station, City Hall and a visit to the Dundee Bypass construction site.

This year they will participate in all of the monthly programs and next year they will exercise leadership skills by planning the programs for the following year's participants. The Class of 2016-2018 includes Brad Allen, City of Newberg; Angel Aguiar Jr, First Federal; Bill Carnes, Lewis Audio Video; Karla Erovick, Chehalem Valley Chamber; Antoinette Gratter, Lewis Audio Video; Andy Heisler, Newberg Christian Church; Sara (Hill) Davidson, Premier Community Bank; Bonnie McCulley, Providence Medical Center; Jaemie Mesneak, A-dec Inc.; Travis Morgan, A-dec Inc.; Esther Provost, A-dec Inc.; Ronnie Vostinak, Chehalem Counseling Center; Dan Wilson, City of Newberg; and Bob Woodruff, Newberg School District.

The time to defeat Measure 97 is now

Oregonians are now voting on one of the most important issues to ever hit our state—Measure 97, the $6 billion tax on sales of goods and services in Oregon.

We need to keep the momentum to be sure that every NO vote on Measure 97 is counted on Election Day to defeat this $6 billion tax on sales of goods and services in Oregon.

We're urging everyone to take steps to do everything possible to turn out every NO vote.

- Be sure your NO vote and every NO voter you know gets counted. The NO on 97 website has information about voting procedures and official drop box locations.
- Share that you're voting NO on Measure 97. The NO on 97 website has images and tools to use your social media pages to remind others to vote NO. And be sure to like the campaign Facebook page and follow on Twitter to share daily updates from the campaign.
- Stay active through Election Day by volunteering with the NO on 97 campaign. There are many ways to help. Even if you have only a small amount of time to give, contact the campaign at info@defeat97.com to request resources or to volunteer.
- Visit the NO on 97 website to grab fact sheets, printable flyers, and other materials to distribute.

Why are we working so hard to defeat Measure 97?

CHAIRMAN’S MESSAGE

Betty Vergets
Board Chair

This month I’m excited to share with you an exciting program that students at Newberg High school are currently participating in this year. The Chamber is involved through our Workforce Development Committee. This committee is focused on the development of our local employment base and technical training for various industry sectors to help broaden the technical skill base for immediate and future employment in the trade, manufacturing and technical industries. One of these programs is the World of Speed, located in Wilsonville, OR. This program specifically targets the automotive repair industry and the Chehalem Valley Chamber along with the Newberg Education Foundation, both Noon and Early Bird Rotary Foundations, Newberg School District and a number of local businesses and stakeholders, were able to partner with the World of Speed.

Many high schools lack the facilities and resources to host an automotive education program, so World of Speed and its partners are filling this gap. In Oregon, high schools have drastically reduced automotive education programs. In 1995, 80 out of 500 Oregon high schools had automotive shop classes. Today that number is down to 41 with some type of automotive program. Districts have cut their support of these programs as they have become more expensive because of the space and equipment now involved. Consequently, students who are not college-bound, miss out on the opportunity to learn a skilled trade. Many drop out

City Volunteers needed

Transient Lodging Tax Ad Hoc Committee - 12 openings for terms of at least two years

The city of Newberg is seeking applications from citizens to serve on the Transient Lodging Tax Ad Hoc Committee. Representatives are being sought from the tourism, hospitality, business, catering and other related functions such as Airbnb/Vacation Rentals by Owners (VRBOs) as well as the public at large for this committee. This is an opportunity to serve and be part of the decision-making team governing your community. The Committee’s role will be to solicit tourism related facility projects, review proposals and make recommendations to the City Council. The group would also make recommendations on the small grant program to the City Council. Appointments are planned for the City Council meeting on December 5 and terms would last at least two years.

During the two-year program the Ad Hoc committee continues the discussion of an organizational model on how to administer TLT funds to implement the Newberg Strategic Tourism Plan. The Committee will also work with the Chehalem Valley Chamber of Commerce on discussions about additional services such as community tours (known as FAM’s), Marketing and Destination Development.

Applicants must be either Newberg residents or Newberg business owners. Applications are available on the city’s website at <https://www.newbergoregon.gov/citycouncil/> or from the City Recorder’s Office at city hall (414 E. 1st Street), and may be submitted via mail or email (cityrecorder@newbergoregon.gov) by Nov 10. For more information, please contact City Recorder Sue Ryan at (503) 537-1283.

Buy Local Program

The buy local committee has met several times after their initial session with Ashley Lippard Designs to flesh out a Newberg-Dundee Buy Local campaign. Just this past week, “Independently Owned and Operated” window clings were printed by Dormer’s and test-marketed in different locations around town. After collecting input from various merchants, the Chamber will be providing the first versions of these window cling signs to merchants throughout Newberg and Dundee. And, work is underway for a branded map of Newberg-Dundee that merchants can use to help recommend and direct their customers to other local merchants as well as help with social media marketing. Stay tuned and shop local!

Because the backers of Measure 97 don’t want voters to know the truth: Measure 97 is a tax on total sales – not profits – that would increase costs for products and services that all Oregon businesses and consumers buy, everything from food, gasoline, utilities, phone service, cable TV and internet, to insurance, medicine and healthcare.

Measure 97 is just a tricky way of creating a stealth sales tax that would cost a typical Oregon family more than $600 per year and with no guarantee where that money would go. Even the Legislative Counsel has stated the legislature can spend the money “any way it chooses”.

Measure 97 is a badly designed tax on sales that would do tremendous harm to Oregon small businesses and consumers.

We need your help now more than ever to spread the message about Measure 97’s costly and damaging tax on sales and help us defeat it by November 8.

Most importantly, vote NO and vote now. Tell your friends, colleague and neighbors to do the same.

Every vote matters and every vote will make the difference this election.

Sincerely, Sheryl Kelsh, President/CEO

due to lack of interest in core academic subjects, and most students, even those who are college bound, miss out on the chance to see real life applications of math and science they are learning in the classroom.

Why is this program important? A serious shortage of skilled auto mechanics exists right now in the United States. Oregon's automotive industry is in dire need of qualified skilled employees at all levels. Lack of emphasis on applied skills in high school, including auto mechanics, is leading to skilled worker shortages in the automotive field. Long-term, the country's ability to innovate and lead the automotive industry depends on equipping the next generation of skilled auto workers with the right training to take on the challenges ahead.

The Chamber saw this program as a way to stimulate a new CTE (Career Technical Education) channel at Newberg High School that will allow 25 students to participate for a full year in the World of Speed program and upon successful completion, they will walk away with baseline certification, college credits and several avenues for networking in the general automotive industry. The students will have immediate employable trade skills to take to the local marketplace, so it's a win-win situation.

On another level, this program will help to encourage these selected students develop confidence and one-on-one relationships with mentors and trainers that can provide real world expertise and insight. All of this with the end goal to develop employable skills, improve overall graduation rates at Newberg High School and provide viable candidates to enhance our community and local workforce development.

One of my colleagues said it best, "the collaboration from all of these groups was the best part, as it's just another way we are bringing the community together and shaping the future of Newberg and the surrounding area." I couldn't agree more!

Chehalem Valley Innovation Accelerator

Your Chamber is launching a technology-focused business accelerator to help entrepreneurs, start-ups and existing businesses get new products and services to market rapidly. The innovation accelerator provides workspace, high-speed Internet, and connects tenants with industry partners, coaches and investors. In return, tenants who successfully launch their business commit to keeping their business in the Chehalem Valley for 2-3 years. CPRD graciously donated the space, so the accelerator is located at 125 SE Elliott Rd. While we're still finishing-out the space, we have accepted 2 tenants: AriAscend and Fidgetech. And as a part of the finish-out, we've engaged Newberg High School students in Graphic Design I & II classes to help create artwork for the space. The formal opening and ribbon-cutting is scheduled for February 10, 2017. For more information, go to <http://chehalemvia.com>.

Chehalem Counseling Center has a new home

The Chehalem Counseling Center has moved from its long standing downtown location on First and Howard Streets, to the larger Medical Center located at 504 Villa Road, Suite 3 in Newberg. The Center is committed to excellence and has worked hard to make this transition as smooth as possible for the families we serve. With the new space, the clinic now offers a more spacious and comfortable reception area with dedicated parking in the front and back of the building. The Center is a place where youth and families can come for treatment for the whole family whether its counseling and therapy, medication management, psychological testing, visitation services, parent education, or having access to vital resources. The CCC hosted an open house in October to allow visitors to see the new space and learn what professional counseling has to offer. If you missed it, drop in for your own personal tour or contact the CCC at 503-538-4874 or reception@cyfs.net.

BE OUR GUEST!

Join us for networking at the Chehalem Counseling Center for a continental breakfast and see our new space at 504 Villa Rd., Suite 3 in Newberg! The Chehalem Counseling Center, a program of Chehalem Youth & Family Services, invites you to be our guest on Tuesday, January 10, from 8 - 8:45 a.m. We'll treat you to a continental breakfast and let you see first hand what the Counseling Center is doing today! You'll see right away how passionate we are about serving youth and families in our community. Please contact Laura Looney to RSVP at 971-264-0612 or llooney@cyfs.net. This is not a fundraiser.

Nap's Thriftway Supermarket

by Allyn Edwards

Have you ever been awakened in the night with that troubling ache or upset stomach only to find the medicine in the cabinet is 4 years expired? What is one left to do when your family member is suffering and you don't have the essentials to comfort them? Hey guess what, Saturday, Sunday, Holidays too, they open their doors, Nap's Thriftway supermarket is always open 24/7 and conveniently yours. The only exception is Christmas Day; after all, they too have families.

When Jim Collins wrote his book "Good to Great", he sighted one store that targeted locations for ease of accessibility to enhance the customer experience. Well, this theory has proven a success with this store being ideally located on the west end of town having access from three convenient points, a breeze to enter and exit without having to travel around the block.

This year the store is celebrating 80 years of dedicated service to the Newberg community. This supermarket knows what customer service is all about and they proudly offer their services to insure a great customer experience and lasting satisfaction. You won't dread the long lines or price check frustration, only miles of smiles as their dedicated workforce strive to assist and serve you.

They continue to offer senior citizen discounts on all items in the store on their Super Tuesdays, whether sale or specialty items, everything is discounted an additional 5% on Tuesday for senior citizens. If you have a favorite item that was discontinued at another supplier, store manager Mitch Haight is willing to consider stocking it for you.

Aside from their great inventory of the food market and fresh produce, they offer the largest collection of "Local Craft Beers" in Yamhill County. They continue to offer fresh Deli items and have a great Parlor area with saloon type tables and stools for meeting and lunch on the run or just sitting for fun. This store still make their own donuts, has a great kitchen for lunch and dinner needs and offers a wide array of lunch options with their full service deli. Next time you need to meet and greet over coffee, consider this as an option as they have their hot breakfast items, lunch and dinners for those on the go.

Thank you Thriftway for your dedicated service to make our community great, for your sponsorships to community sports, parades and fund raisers. We wish you well in the decades to come as you continue serving us faithfully. Congratulations on a job well done.

Next time you're awakened in the middle of the night, whether you're pregnant and desirous of that extra special something that's missing, or suffering from natures unexpected, take comfort in knowing Nap's Thriftway is leaving the light on just for you!

Natalie's Estate Winery has been in business in this area for 17 years. Our philosophy is to make wines that assure the expression of each vineyard. Our wines are handcrafted by Boyd Teegarden, the owner and winemaker of Natalie's Estate Winery. Boyd utilizes old world winemaking techniques representing the wine at its essence through the reflection of a place and character of a certain piece of ground. This is a key element of keeping the terroir quality in our fine wines.

Natalie's Estate Winery offers 15 varietals of wine - mostly big, bold red wines such as Cabernet Sauvignon, Zinfandel, Merlot, Cabernet Franc, Sangiovese and of course, Pinot Noir and Pinot Gris as well as several other varietals. Each lot is small and our total production is about 2000 cases.

Natalie's Estate Winery was founded with one goal in mind in an effort to stand out in the industry. This goal is to make big, rich extracted wines with structure. Most of our wines are vineyard designated and all of the wines are handcrafted in small lots. We have 3 different wine labels or brands:

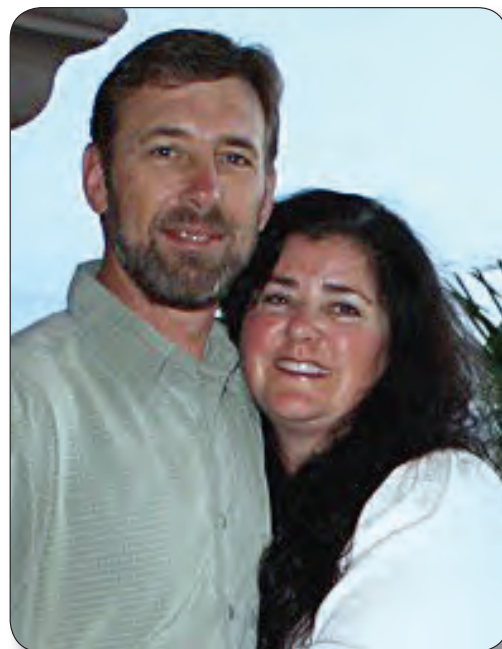

- Natalie's Estate Winery typically considered our reserve label and sold mostly in the tasting room
- Rock Horse Ranch often sold in wine shops and country clubs and restaurants
- Big Sky Collections sold primarily in the Montana market

We hold long term contracts with quality vineyards from the Columbia, Yakima and Willamette Valleys.

Our goal is to remain a small winery that produces robust wines with structure and rich intensity. We produce these results by allowing the vineyard characteristics to develop the complexity and concentration in the wines rather than modifying flavors through winemaking intervention. We have chosen to distribute in Oregon and Montana as well as recently in Hong Kong and the mainland of China.

Often customers find our tasting room to be warm, comfortable and welcoming. The variety of selections (big reds) are a nice change in the Willamette Valley. Since we are open by appointment, it allows us to spend a little longer with our visitors taking them through a sampling of our wine.

Natalie's Estate Winery is named after our only daughter. The symbol of the hummingbird was chosen to represent our winemaking philosophy – being a small producer where the delicacy and intensity of the wines become our strength. Like the hummingbird it is our goal to harvest the finest fruit nectar.
